

SUNDAY ART WORKSHOP AT THE SAATCHI GALLERY

The background of the entire poster is an abstract painting. It features dark, swirling colors like deep blues, blacks, and greys, with some lighter, more vibrant areas of red, orange, and yellow. In the center, there is a faint, dark silhouette of a human figure, possibly a woman, with some internal details like a face and limbs suggested by lighter colors and textures. The overall style is expressive and textured, typical of contemporary abstract art.

These acrylic painting classes allow students to take time out to relax, be creative and tap into the imagination. Students are immersed in the actual process of creativity, with no pressure to produce "presentable art".

It is about trying something new and enjoying self-expression. Attention is directed on the mindful use of colour, texture, form, and metaphor.

Dates :

Sundays 12 Oct, 19 Oct, 02 Nov 2014
2.30-5.30 pm

Where:

Saatchi Gallery
at the Education Room
Duke of York Sq.
Chelsea SW3 4RY

Price £60

(for 3 sessions or 9 hours)

For info/ booking write to:

ASMAA@BABYLON-ART.COM

The Tutor:

Asmaa Alanbari is a professional artist qualified in fine art as well as in architecture. She uses her international background to create work inspired by several cultures. Some of her work can be seen at WWW.BABYLON-ART.COM

Saatchi Gallery: Venue Pictures